Kate Wilcott, MLA

Further to its permanent order of reference, your Committee held a meeting on November 26 and December 3, 2024, to consider creating a standing committee on official languages.

Your Committee reviewed the Standing Orders governing the House of Commons Standing Committee on Official Languages, and considered the “Report of the 2021 Review of the Official Languages Act of New Brunswick, Organization, Communication and Commitment”, which recommended the establishment of a committee, specifically:

“1.1 That this committee be specifically charged with monitoring the progress of the application of the Act, the regulations and instructions made under it, with considering the reports of the Premier, the Commissioner of Official Languages and the Department of Official Languages, and with making recommendations as appropriate.”

Following deliberations, your Committee recommends the establishment of a Standing Committee on Official Languages.
